

Dan Apling: Graduated from Whitmer High School in 1958. Born in March 1940.

Upon graduation from Whitmer I enrolled in the College of Education at the University of Toledo, married Deanna Laney, class of 1960, in the summer of 1961, and graduated in 1962. I taught and coached football and wrestling at the Washington Junior High for two years. We moved to Fontana, California in 1964 and for the next three years I taught and coached wrestling at the Fontana Junior and Senior High schools. Concurrently, I attended classes at California State College at Los Angeles, graduating with an M.A. in Educational Administration in 1967. For the next three years I was a full-time student in the doctoral program in the College of Education at the University of Toledo, worked on staff in the College of Education, and graduated in 1970 with a Ph.D. in Educational Administration. The rest of my working career, except for a brief hiatus in insurance and financial planning, was spent in public school administration, in several states, as a principal, director, assistant superintendent, and superintendent.

Deanna, having gone back to school once the children were mostly raised, graduated with a degree in Education from Ohio University and taught for several years. We both retired in 1999, live in Upper Arlington, a suburb of Columbus, Ohio for nine months of the year, and spend our winters in Cape Coral, Florida.

Both of our children live in the Columbus area, rather close to our home. Dana (44) has her own business, Massage Therapy of Ohio; her husband of 24 years, Tim, is an Application Development Manager for IGS, Inc. They live in Pickerington, Ohio, a suburb of Columbus, 25 miles away. She and Tim have four children: Seth (22) is a student at Ohio University; Abigail (20) is a student at the University of Cincinnati; Anna (11); Grace (8).

Daun (42) is a network administrator with the State of Ohio; his wife of 14 years, Deana, works part-time as a supervisor for Kroger. They live in Hilliard, Ohio, a suburb of Columbus, only five miles away. He and Deana have four children: Vincent (7); Daunte (4); Sydney (3); and Dominic (1). Needless to say, we are truly blessed to have the children and grandchildren we have, and are so very pleased to be able to see them as often as we do.

Favorite memories of Whitmer High: Participating in the practices and games/matches as a member of the football, baseball and wrestling teams. Also, having been able to participate in the circus and the ladders.
